1. [ ] chaired a meeting of the Ad Hoc Group dealing with the Congressional inquiries on the Intelligence Community. The first order of business was a briefing by [ ] on the Director's meeting with Senator Church. This has been reported to you previously so I will not repeat the details of the Director's meeting as furnished by [ ]. Reports were then made by OLC on the House Committee and a copy of HR 138 was handed out; a copy of HR 138 is attached.

2. [ ] then advised that Senator Church did want some kind of an Agency notice to employees to extend their aid to the Committees. This would undoubtedly have to be prepared by all organizations in the Intelligence Community, and he furnished to those in attendance an example of the draft Agency notice which would probably be sent out.

3. Mr. John Warner then advised that Mr. Silberman, Assistant Attorney General, would be named the President's Counsel to work on the House and Senate inquiries.

4. Copies of the detailed minutes of the meeting will be forwarded when they become available.
